As we prepare for the 2024 state legislative session, MLA has created a workshop that covers the basics of library advocacy. This 1 hour workshop will introduce library staff, board members and friends groups to how Maryland Library Association uses a One Voice approach for impactful advocacy at the state level. Topics include ways to develop successful networking for advocacy, how to be involved in Library Legislative Day, the law making process for Maryland, how does MLA coordinate its messaging, and tools that you can use to track legislation. Designed for those without much advocacy experience, this workshop will provide information useful for anyone involved or looking to be involved in library legislative advocacy.

Registration deadline is February 22nd

The annual Kids Are Customers, Too! Conference is back! This youth services conference is an opportunity for library staff working with children, tweens, and teens in public libraries and school media centers throughout the state to meet new people, renew contacts, and learn the latest information affecting the diverse field in which they work. Join us at the Miller Branch of the Howard County Library System on April 4, 2024 from 9:30am – 4:00pm as we feature a day’s worth of presenters sharing fresh ideas and practical tips that can be applied directly to day-to-day youth programming and services. The keynote speaker will be Jessica Anne Bratt, Deputy Director of the Grand Rapids Public Library and author of Let’s Talk About Race in Storytimes. Jessica Anne Bratt has traveled nationwide to speak on antibias education. In her keynote, “Let’s Talk About Race: Working with Youth,” she will address how to incorporate racial justice and DEIA principles in library programs and service for children, tweens, and teens.

This program has been approved for 4 contact hours of continuing education.

Registration deadline is March 21st

The Conference Committee has heard your request: a 1-day virtual conference has been put together and the registration link can be found above. The topics are varied, and CE forms will be issued for each session pending full attendance. We expect that the regular conference registration link for the in-person conference in Cambridge will be opening very soon.

After you register for the conference, consider reserving your room at the Hyatt—the link for our group discount is: https://www.hyatt.com/en-US/group-booking/CHESA/G-MYLB Note: the rates include the $16 resort fee that has historically been tacked on when you went to check out of the hotel.

The Social Committee would love to hear about your Silent Auction basket! Reach out to Jo Powers with your information, or if you have any questions about submission. Would you like to be on the team to set up some of the other events that they are sponsoring? Contact Jo Powers at jpowers@tcfl.org.

Anita Crawford is the conference chair this year—reach out to her if you’d like to be on her team at acrawford@bcpl.net
INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM PANEL DISCUSSIONS

As book challenges intensify nationwide, MLA's Intellectual Freedom Panel invites you to join us for five new discussions regarding censorship. We will focus on a specific book, article, or video for each discussion, examining current concerns in freedom of access and expression. Please note that these discussions will not be recorded, and that no continuing education credits will be granted.

Defending Our Collections: Held from 1:00 - 2:00pm on MLA Connect.

LAW ON THE FRONTLINES: LEGAL REFERENCE FOR PUBLIC LIBRARIES

As a specialized area of knowledge and resources, law and legal reference can be a challenging area for providers of general reference. Law on the Frontlines: Legal Reference for Public Libraries enables and empowers public library staff across Maryland to provide quality legal reference in their local communities, ensuring that the law is accessible to every Marylander who needs it.

Brought to Maryland's public libraries through a partnership of the Thurgood Marshall State Library, the Maryland Access to Justice Commission, and the Conference of Maryland Court Law Library Directors.

For each completed training, a Certificate of Completion indicating Contact hours will be provided.

Frontlines sessions address:
The role of public libraries in advancing Access to Justice ; Best Practices for legal reference interviews; Legal resources in a variety of subjects; Basics on the structure of law; Recognizing the difference between information and advice; Where to refer forward.
Wednesday, February 21, 2024, 9-10:30am, Law on the Frontlines: Legal Reference Best Practices
The foundation class for the series, this class provides an overview of best practices when addressing questions about law and legal situations.

Wednesday, March 20, 2024, 9-10:30am, Law on the Frontlines: Navigating the Law – Public Benefits
Frontlines Topics help develop recognition of law topics through terminology and a deeper dive into the range of questions and concerns related to that topic. Public Benefits looks at the complex array of resources addressing this area of law, including food stamps, TCA, utilities relief, and more.

Wednesday, April 17, 2024, 9-10:30am, Law on the Frontlines: Navigating the Law – Life & Health Planning
Frontlines Topics help develop recognition of law topics through terminology and a deeper dive into the range of questions and concerns related to that topic. Life & Health Planning looks at the span of topics related to decision-making in the areas of advance directives, estate planning, guardianship, powers of attorney, and more.

For more on Legal Reference Training see the Law on the Frontlines: Legal Reference for Public Libraries webpage at the Thurgood Marshall State Law Library.
