PSD Minutes
AACPL-Linthicum Branch
December 8, 2011

I. Introductions
II. Review/ Changes to September 2011 minutes: Minutes approved
III. Interest group updates
   a. OSIG- Tina Pickens is the current chair of OSIG. OSIG has been approved for Facebook and Twitter presences. Old paperwork with the mission statement for OSIG has been found!
   b. TIG- Will meet after the PSD meeting for one of their two face-to-face meetings a year. The next face-to-face will be at Conference 2012. Stefan will lead this afternoon’s meeting because Krista McKenzie is snowed in in Garret County.
   c. RAIG- Doing very well. Bill Taylor (RAIG chair) is working on a street lit program for Conference 2012. Stay tuned for more details.
IV. MLA/DLA Conference 2012- Melissa Hepler
   a. Anirban Basu will be the keynote speaker.
   b. PSD is sponsoring/co-sponsoring the following programs:
      i. Street Lit (with RAIG & TIG)
      ii. Ties that Bind: Using Social Media to Strengthen the Customer Relationship
      iii. Tech Core Competencies For Library Staff
      iv. Ready Reference Law: Top 10 tips from Law Librarians
   c. PSD is not sponsoring a preconference this year due to the number of preconference programs already available.
V. Fall Program Follow-up- “Straight from the AudioVisual Philes”. Program went well. Had 19 attendees which was good due to being left out of “Happenings”. Some comments were “it was a little basic”, “great resources”, and the usual comments about the room being too hot and/or too cold.
VI. Round the table/other
   a. The poll posted to MaryLib and to the PSD Facebook page in regards to switching one of the quarterly PSD meetings to another location garnered no real response. Verdict is to keep the meetings at the Linthicum Branch of AACPL.
   b. Discussion of PSD Google page- talked about making the page public. The question that came up is, “Is there a higher increase if spam if we make it public?” If anyone knows the answer, please post to the group. We will re-discuss the Google Group page at the March meeting.
   c. Update on Yvette: She is home recuperating after a horrible car accident. She’ll be ok, but is suffering from multiple broken ribs and assorted bruising.

The next PSD meeting is scheduled for March 8, 2012 at the Linthicum Branch of AACPL at 9:30 am.
