Leadership Development Division Presents

Leading with Anxiety in Two Parts

Part 2: Monday November 8th 2:00pm-3:30pm

Online Via Zoom*

In this two-part presentation, Ashley Biggs (Marketing and Outreach Librarian, MD State Library for the Blind and Print Disabled) wants you to be the leader you were meant to be. We've all heard the myth that anxiety is a hindrance to a leader's ability to be effective. Join us to learn the truth behind the myth and to discover how anxiety affects leadership and how mission creep and burnout are impacting libraries. In this program, we will dive into mission creep and burnout, the differences between stress and anxiety and methods to help cope with anxiety during stressful situations.

This program has been approved for 3.0 contact hours of continuing education

Registration deadline is: October 18th

It is time once again to turn our attention to recognizing the excellent service of our colleagues by nominating them for Maryland Library Association Awards for FY 2022! The winners will be honored at our FY 2022 MLA/DLA Conference scheduled for May 4-6, 2022.

MLA wants to recognize special people who have contributed to libraries in Maryland and we need YOUR help! The MLA Awards Committee encourages you to nominate deserving colleagues for one of the awards described below:

The Maryland Library Association presents these awards:

The Margaret Carty Emerging Leader Award - recognizes a member of MLA working in a library who demonstrates strong leadership potential and encourages the recipient to assume an increasingly responsible role in librarianship. 2022 MLA/DLA Conference: Come As You Are May 4-6, 2022 Hyatt Regency, Cambridge MD

The Conference Committee created a poll and when the votes were tallied, the theme “Come as Your Are”, rose to the top. This theme summed up the general feeling of the committee after two years of meeting virtually. There are over 70 programs that were submitted by the deadline of October 15th and the committee is working on selecting the best to present to the library community this May. The social committee is really fired up this year-they have scheduled the usual crowd pleasers such as Pub Quiz and Karaoke-and they’ve added a Mindfulness Moment to the agenda. Were you overwhelmed by having Karaoke and Game Night at the same time? The social committee split them up and is now offering Happy Hour and Game Night at the same time. Would you like to be a part of this planning committee- join them on the 2nd Wednesday of the month; the contact information for Lisa and Jenee is in the calendar.

The Poster Sessions will have-a call for applications later in the Fall.

The November Conference Committee will be at the Hyatt- reach out to Megan Sutherland (PGCMLS) for the details and plan to meet us in Cambridge!. megan.sutherland@pgcmls.info
