Location: Town of Chapel Hill
Job Title: Director of the Library and Arts & Culture

Responsibilities: The Town of Chapel Hill is seeking a mission-driven, values-based leader for the Chapel Hill Public Library, which includes the Town’s division of Community Arts & Culture. The next Director of the Library and Arts & Culture will be a strategic, visionary professional who can skillfully engage the staff and community with a focus on equity.

The Director of Library and Arts & Culture will lead a highly regarded public library through its next season of growth and continue to grow its Community Arts & Culture division. Building upon past successes, the Director will continue to nurture the department's efforts to broaden its outreach and explore additional ways to welcome and serve all individuals within the community. Reporting to the Deputy Town Manager, the next Director will lead the department's team of 55 staff members (33.5 FTEs plus part-time, seasonal support staff). The Director is responsible for a departmental budget of over $4.6 million.

Requirements: The following are required:
- A Master of Library Science (from an American Library Association accredited institution), Public Administration, or a related field.
- Public Library certification (or ability to secure N.C. Public Librarian Certification within 18 months).
- Significant experience in a library serving populations of 60,000 or more, with an organizational focus on diverse public and cultural programs.
- Work history across library service divisions with five (5) or more years of successful and progressive levels of responsibility in Library administration.
- Work history demonstrating ability to advance a more vibrant and inclusive community through arts and events.

Salary Range: The hiring range for this position is $140,000.00 - $170,000.00. Compensation is negotiable based on experience and qualifications.
