Location: Drexel University Libraries
Job Title: Resident Librarian, Business Specialist

Responsibilities: Drexel University Libraries seeks an early-career librarian to develop business and entrepreneurship subject expertise (as well as develop general familiarity with academic library operations and services through rotating opportunities) while participating in our three-year diversity residence program. The Business Specialist Resident Librarian, while focusing on growing expertise and increasing skills related to delivering services and guidance to patrons, will benefit from flexible but steady focused opportunities to become familiar with academic library operations and services through rotating assignments, interactive mentoring, and building the Librarian's professional network. The wide range of work experience gained through this position will enable the Librarian to build essential skills and plan career path options after the conclusion of the residency period. The Librarian will enrich the Libraries by bringing new ideas and perspectives and contributing to projects and strategic initiatives and to strengthening the Libraries' culture of diversity, equity, inclusiveness and belonging.

Requirements:
- Master's degree in library and information sciences or related field
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills with strong customer service orientation and commitment to inclusiveness of diverse ideas and perspectives
- Evidence of self-motivation to address new challenges and solve problems with commitment to learn new knowledge and skills
- Familiarity with current and emerging technologies and trends in academic libraries and scholarly communications
- Excellent organizational skills, including time and project management
- Demonstrated ability to work in a team environment; able to lead as well as execute and take constructive input from multiple sources
- Demonstrated commitment to fostering a diverse, equitable, inclusive and welcoming work environment in both physical and cyber space

Salary Range: $54,630-68,390
