

Location: University of Maryland Baltimore - Health Sciences & Human Services Library

Job Title: Research and Education Librarian

Responsibilities: The Research and Education Librarian is a member of an exceptional team responsible for advancing the library's research support and educational goals. The HSHSL serves the University of Maryland, Baltimore (UMB) schools of dentistry, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, social work, and the graduate school. The faculty librarian in this position will serve as liaison to the University of Maryland School of Dentistry (UMSOD). The successful candidate will assist students, faculty, and staff in the areas of research support, evidence-based practice, information literacy, and scholarly communication. They collaborate with the eight-member Research and Education Services (RES) department and colleagues Library-wide to develop and deliver innovative programs and services. In addition to advancing HSHSL and UMSOD priorities, they engage with the University community and participate in professional and scholarly activities.

Requirements: Master's degree from an ALA-accredited program. Demonstrated experience working in a service position, either in a library or other setting. Experience in database searching, including familiarity with health sciences databases. Training or experience in teaching to groups, either virtually or in-person. Experience working both in teams and independently. Excellent communication skills.
PREFERRED: Public service experience in an academic or health sciences library environment. Experience teaching online or in-person to a range of audiences, including faculty, students, and clinicians. Evidence of professional involvement, service, and/or scholarly activities.

Salary Range: SALARY: $55,000. minimum, commensurate with experience. This is a permanent status-eligible, full-time, non-tenure track faculty position

Application Process: Review of applications begins immediately and continues until the position is filled. Include the following documents as part of the application package: A resume or curriculum vitae; Three references with the names, professional titles, relationships to applicant, and contact information, including email; A cover letter that describes applicant's interest in the position. The cover letter should also include a maximum 100 word statement describing their experience and commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion and how they would further the Library and UMB's diversity values; applicants who have not yet had the opportunity for such experience should note how their work will further the Library and UMB's commitment to diversity.

On a separate page, a signed/dated affidavit stating, "I verify that my CV is current and accurate" - this does not need to be notarized. For more information, visit our website at: <http://www.hshsl.umaryland.edu/general/about/employment/> or email jobs@hshsl.umaryland.edu.

Special Requests:
Closing Date: N/A